

ANNUAL MEETING

Arizona State University Retirees Association

April 21, 2012, 1:00-3:00 p.m.

Welcome—President David Schwalm

Remarks from Scholarship Recipient—Nicholas Smith

Sue Blumer introduced Nicholas and provided a brief bio describing his background. Nicholas majors in Computer Information Systems in the College of Business and comes from the San Carlos Indian Reservation. In his brief remarks thanking the Association for being selected as the scholarship recipient, Nicholas displayed great poise and a clear focus on the direction of his education at ASU.

Presentation on Adopt-a-Family

Joan Leard briefly described the family selected for receipt of clothing, school supplies and Christmas gifts. Families in which either the mother or father has returned to school are eligible for adoption by the Association.

Living Video History Committee Report and Video Presentation

Dave Scheatzle reviewed the status of the project. This year the committee added 11 interviews to the inventory of more than 80 video recordings of former ASU faculty and staff. He then proceeded to show a medley of video clips recorded in 2011-12. The videos provided an opportunity to experience a nostalgic visit with some old friends talking about their experiences at ASU.
